

ALEXANDRASLOVENIATOURISM

Travel Radio Australia and we are visiting Slovenia. What a beautiful country in Europe and I have Alexandra here from the Slovenian Tourist Board. Alexandra, welcome to the program.

Hello and thank you for coming to Slovenia. Slovenia is such a beautiful country in Europe. Now for those Australians who've never been there, can you tell us a bit about the country in general, where it's situated and a couple of the things that it offers.

Okay, so I have to tell that Slovenia is a country and it's bordering to Italy, Croatia, Austria and Hungary. It has two million people and it's very diverse, so you have like everything. You have the Alps, you have the Mediterranean Sea, you have the Karst and the Pannonian Plain, 20, 30, 65 days a year.

And it's the only country in Europe that brings together this European watch and such as promises and a lot of delightful surprises, be in terms of culture, art and history or gastronomy. And like we are a very compact size, but we have all the boutique five-star experiences and that awaits you at every corner. And tell us about the capital.

What's the capital? Capital is Ljubljana. It's a very beautiful city. You have a beautiful castle, you have three bridges.

It was built a lot by famous architect Pličnik. You have great restaurants. It's a beautiful city.

Actually in the middle of Slovenia, so you can stay in Ljubljana and you can explore the whole Slovenia from Ljubljana. So in one hour you can be in anywhere. You can be in one hour in the mountains, one hour at the sea.

And speaking of the mountains, you have some of the really fantastic ski resorts there, don't you? You can ski some beautiful places in the Alps. Yes, actually we have. We have some ski resorts in the Alps and also there's one ski resort near Ljubljana.

So you can stay in Ljubljana in the morning and in the afternoon we can go skiing. In the Alps you can just stay and enjoy the views. You can go hiking, and you can enjoy beautiful lakes, the Babin lake and the Bled lake.

And also the gastronomy is very, very good. And the wineries there, I noticed the wine you make there is fantastic too. You've got lovely wine regions.

Yeah, that's also true. Slovenian wine is one of the most recognizable, one of the best in the world. Yes, we have the Gorishko-Berda region that is next to Italy.

Then we have the Podrava region that's bordering to Austria and Hungary and the Posavlje region. We also have some authentic wine sorts. Are you based in the capital yourself? Yes, and also Slovenian tourist board is situated in the capital.

And can you tell our listeners some of the places in the capital that are a bit, you know, off the beaten track, some hidden gems? Would you recommend a few beautiful restaurants that they visit, that sort of thing? I would just suggest to go to the castle, enjoy the sunset. You have a beautiful bar there and you can enjoy the wine. And it's a really beautiful sunset there and the view.

And then just stroll near Ljubljanica river and maybe in the evening go and grab a good cocktail. So maybe you should visit Slovenia in 2026 and enjoy some new accommodations that are opening, some new boutique hotels. There's one very important play, Dorško Filoka passion play, that's happening every five years.

There's a new museum opening in Bled this year. Then if you are more into nature, you can come and enjoy the bear sightseeing, so you can watch the bears. If you want to go for festivals, then you then you come and see Kurenti.

This is like also very special Slovenian, it's also UNESCO tradition. Or you can just come and enjoy Slovenian gastronomy, which is one of the best in the world. You also have a lot of Michelin stars.

Yes, and what's one of your favorite restaurants in the capital? Oh, I would say, yes, by Anna Roš. She has one bistro in Ljubljana, but she has a three Michelin star outside of Ljubljana and Kobarid. And how can people find out more online about Slovenia in general? I would say just go to slovenia.info, check our website and get more information.

Thank you so much, Aleksandra, from Slovenia Tourism Organization. Thank you so much for being a part of our program. And can you say hello to our audience in Australia, in Slovenian? Thank you so much.
