Travel Radio Australia, we're here at the great Blues on Broadbeach with one of the featured artists who's had the stage on Sunday afternoon, Alex Kacenko. Alex, welcome to the program. Thank you so much for having me.

How are you doing? I'm great, I'm great. What a set, man. You had the whole of the surf parade stage in the palm of your hand there.

Now, you started as a busker in Brisbane. Tell us a bit about your route set. Yeah, I started, when I decided to go solo, I started doing heaps of busking, four hour, five hour slots, pouring rain, glaring sunshine and yeah, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, I just started busking as much as possible to get my name out there and here we are, you know.

Well, now you're a big featured artist on some of the biggest music festivals in the whole of Australia and soon to be overseas as well. I was just looking at your background, you've played with some incredible artists, screaming jets and tell us about some of those artists you've played with. I mean, I'm so fortunate and just so early on in my career to be supporting so many incredible artists.

And it's been really educational, I suppose probably the best way just learning from their wisdom, their advice in the music industry. And a lot of the time their advice is just go for it, you know, travel as much as possible and tour. And so I've been sticking to those words and traveling as much as I possibly can.

How would I describe you? I mean, you're a one man, you play everything, you play the drum, tambourine, the harmonica, the guitar, everything pretty much. Yeah, I just go by, I guess just one man band. I varied genres depending on sort of the vibe, but festivals like this, I love to play the fun stuff, the fast stuff, the harder stuff to play and just jam.

I love playing off the vibe of the crowd, if the crowd's feeling a certain thing, you know, playing on that and just having a good time trying to incorporate as many people as possible too. And I love the way the crowd reacts because it's a real bit of a dance party too, you really get them involved, you have the whole crowd dancing at the front and the way you play the drum too. I noticed you did a bit of rap, a bit of everything in there, it's pretty cool.

Yeah, well that rap is just, it's actually a Bob Dylan tune, subterranean homesick blues and I just took his words and hit the times two speed and here we are with probably one of the first rap songs, you know. Yeah, the blues festival is so cool, but it fits right in, it's fantastic. Now tell us your opinions of the Blues on Brawl Beach gig.

I gotta say man, this is my best festival experience, I've played the master, I've played Blues Fest, I've played some incredible festivals. I've never been treated so well as an artist and looked after and honestly the atmosphere is amazing. I've just been walking around all day before I've been playing and after just checking out the music.

Oh it's just been such an incredible, Blues on Brawl Beach, I really hope they get me back next year because I wish I could play this festival every year for the rest of my life, it's so incredible. From what I heard of you today, I'm sure you'll be back for the next 10 years man, it's fantastic. And they gave you a perfect slot on Sunday afternoon, the weather was beautiful, it's such a great vibe and how can people find out more about you Alex online? You can check out my website alexkisenko.com, it's Ukrainian last name so it does make it a bit difficult but if you just search on the program you'll find me.

And Facebook, Instagram, Spotify and all the above. Beautiful Alex, thanks so much for being on Travel Radio Australia. Awesome, thank you so much for having me, really appreciate it, cheers.
