

HOFFINTERVIEWEDIT

Well one of the most famous people in the world is actor and singer David Hasselhoff. I caught up with him at the London Ski Show to talk about how he got his nickname and how he loves to ski in Europe. G'day, g'day, g'day, g'day mate, how are you? I'm well thank you.

Now the Hoff and you're here at the Ski Show in London and it's great, can you say hello to our people at Ski TV there? Hello Ski TV, it's the Hoff. Actually the Hoff was invented in Australia, believe it or not. Really? Yeah, it was invented by some secretaries from the, I got a call from the Daily Telegraph and they called me and they said, how do you feel about being a sex symbol at 50? I said, it's okay, they said there is an epidemic of emails going back and forth from females calling you the Hoff and I said, well don't hassle the Hoff.

Really, that's where it all came from, from Australia, what part of Australia, was that Sydney? It was in Sydney, yeah, in fact I was at Sydney Harbour Park jogging and cars were driving, I'm going, Hoff, Hoff, it was like the Night of the Walking Dead, you know. That's fantastic and you're here with Alpine Resorts.com and tell us a bit about that company, how did you get involved with them? Alpine Resorts.com called me and they said, look, we're kind of a, we know that you're really into social media and that's what we're into, booking ski resorts all over the world, they have 900, it's a family-run organization, a bunch of guys got together, they started with just two or three, now they have 900 and so you can go on to Alpine Resorts.com and book all your skis. So when you go to Aspen or Kitzbühel or Saabach-Hinterglem or Austria or Queensland, you just go and you hit Alpine Ski Resorts, Alpine Resorts.com and all your stuff's waiting for you, so I thought, why not? And so can you throw in a ski vacation and they did.

Well, that's a good thing, isn't it? That's fantastic. Now the Hoff, what's your favorite ski resort in Europe and I know, or one of them, I know you've got quite a few because we've got to be fair to everyone, what do you think? Well, I don't know, you know, I really enjoyed skiing, I've skied a lot of places, you know, and I've done a lot of work with the Special Olympics and Schwarzenegger and those guys and skied a lot mostly in Austria and I really learned to ski in Kitzbühel because I was recording an album there. Now I ski at family resorts like Saabach-Hinterglem, you know, and then I like the smaller family-run resorts because when you're... Yeah, when you're you.

Off for me, you can't go anywhere unless you have your goggles on. Or the big balaclava like Clint Eastwood has. Yeah, yeah, exactly.

Now thank you very much, the Hoff, for your time, we really appreciate it and is there any way you could just say hi to our Ski TV audience out there who are watching online? Okay, I'm David Asilov on Ski TV, keep skiing guys, I'll see you on the slopes with alpineresorts.com.
